Title: Get A Clue Mount Prospect

Mount Prospect:

Get A Clue: Mount Prospect's 2007 Puzzlethon is a new event designed by the Mount Prospect Historical Society and the Mount Prospect Public Library Foundation. The two groups are teaming up for a fundraiser that will be fun for all puzzle enthusiasts and people excited by a challenge.

"This is a really fun event, we have had a great time planning it and I think it is going to be a blast" says Victoria Bitters, one of the organizers. "But only 100 tickets will be sold, so early registration will probably be necessary."

"Our community detectives will watch ten short performances by Historical Society and Public Library volunteers" explains Gavin Kleespies, Executive Director of the Mount Prospect Historical Society and the other primary organizer, "imbedded in each performance will be a clue, our detectives will have to put together all the clues and figure out the mystery or final puzzle."

"Each individual or group will have already been issued a decoder which they will use to solve the final puzzle." Bitters adds. "Everyone who correctly solves the final puzzle will be put into a drawing for the afternoon's grand prize."

For more information and sample puzzles, visit www.puzzledmountprospect.org

The cost for this puzzling afternoon will be $10 per person or $30 for a team of four friends or family members. Proceeds will benefit the Mount Prospect Public Library Foundation and the Mount Prospect Historical Society.

To pre-register phone 847-253-5675 or log onto www.mppl.org/events.
